

Dear Chamber Music Friend:

SEASON 16 PROMISES TO BE AN EXCITING ONE WITH PROGRAMS TO CELEBRATE SOME DISTINCTIVE SPECIAL DAYS!

JOIN US FOR ANOTHER YEAR OF GREAT MUSIC GREAT PERFORMANCES AND GREAT FUN

Cabaret seating continues! Concerts are performed in the Pillsbury Theatre, at the 560 Music Center with drinks available for purchase from STL Barkeep to enjoy during the concert, with free parking in the garage or on the street.

Opening Concert “Open Strings” The Mendelssohn Octet for Strings, one of the most popular chamber works, is featured on the September 23 Season Opener.

St. Louis Ballet Collaboration “Mix” with Tchaikovsky’s gorgeous “Serenade for Strings” and Kay’s “Western Symphony” Choose from October 11 or 12 at the Touhill.

“D. Bach L” Leonard Slatkin hosts and narrates the November 25 program dedicated to his friend Peter Schickele and the “discovered” works of P. D. Q. Bach.

Holiday Films at the Hi-Pointe Theatre Our partnership with Cinema St. Louis continues: “Yuletide Flicks” with Buster Keaton in “The Frozen North” and Laurel & Hardy’s “Big Business”. CMSSL musicians perform the movie scores live. You can visit the Hi-Pointe refreshment counter for the best popcorn in town.

“Nicholas McGegan Returns” Nic brings his insights and charisma to the podium on February 10, 2025.

But wait, there’s MORE! Celebrate St. Patrick’s Day on March 17th at our “Celtic Salute”, and then “Cinco de Mayo” on May 5th with music and some specialty drinks for the occasions available from STL Barkeep.

Package A includes all 12 Monday evening Subscription Concerts with a 15% savings. Package B includes any six concerts of your choice.

Mail in your Subscription Order Form with payment, or call CMSSL at 314-941-6309 to renew. OR Subscribe Online at <https://chambermusicstl.org/subscribe-2/>

For the best chance to secure your preferred seating choice, we encourage you to renew before April 30.

Chamber Music Society of St. Louis appreciates your support.

