

CHAMBER MUSIC
SOCIETY
OF ST. LOUIS

Dear Chamber Family,

We are pleased to invite you to join us for Season 17 of Chamber Music Society of St. Louis—an exciting year filled with brilliant music, cabaret warmth, and unforgettable evenings celebrating the magnificence of live performance.

This season, we continue our signature cabaret-style seating in the Pillsbury Theatre at the 560 Music Center, where you can enjoy a drink from STL Barkeep as music surrounds you in an intimate, relaxed setting—chamber music, the way it was meant to be heard.

Our 2025–26 Michael F. Neidorff Chamber Concert Series offers a wide-ranging musical journey, beginning with the elegance of "Masters of Vienna" and a lyrical bridge between Sister Cities in "French Impressions: A Tale of Two Cities". October brings a spirited "Halloween Spooktacular," followed by a tribute to German composers and our Sister City, Stuttgart in "Echoes of Germany".

Let your heart be stirred by "Gypsy Spirit"—a celebration of Romani-inspired music—and revisit the golden age of film with "Silent is Golden", where we perform the music live to classic silent films at the Hi-Pointe Theatre.

January's "Unfinished Business" explores music that endures despite being left incomplete, and February warms the heart with some romantic favorites in "Love Notes". We're delighted to welcome back St. Louis' beloved Nicholas McGegan in March for another enchanting appearance, and jazz favorites Stephanie Trick and Paolo Alderighi, will help you "Swing Into Spring".

As we begin to close the season, don't miss "Night at the Opera", featuring chamber works by opera's great composers, and "May the 4th Be With You", a playful finale with all things "four."

Subscribers enjoy savings, priority seating, and guaranteed access to this spectacular lineup. Don't forget to add our special collaboration with St. Louis Ballet—"Mozart and Arvo Pärt" at the Touhill Performing Arts Center on October 11 or 12—available as an optional add-on for a special discounted price.

We can't wait to share another season of unforgettable music with you.
