

Dear Chamber Family,

We are pleased to invite you to join us for Season 18 of Chamber Music Society of St. Louis—an exciting year filled with great music.

NEW! This year, we are also introducing the Matinee concert series, Mondays at 2:00 pm. Concerts are at First Presbyterian Church of Kirkwood, with conventional open seating.

Our 2026-27 Michael F. Neidorff Chamber Concert Series offers a wide-ranging musical journey, beginning with "American Voices" followed by a nod to Halloween with "A Chamber Nightmare". Our silent movie at the Hi-Pointe Theatre this year features Douglas Fairbanks in "The Mark of Zorro". Leonard Slatkin joins us for "The Slatkin Touch" and Season #18 concludes with our annual visit with Nicholas McGegan. Drinks are available for purchase to enjoy at your table in our relaxed cabaret-style seating as you listen to the performance... chamber music, the way it was meant to be heard.

For our new matinee season, we welcome our patrons with "Simply Classics" followed by "Familiar Territory" and a special Beethoven Birthday Bash. After our Holiday break, we continue with music from the Baroque in "Handel with Care", exploring string instruments in "String Theory", and favorites from "The Age of Romance".

Subscribers enjoy savings, priority seating, and guaranteed access to this spectacular lineup.

Subscribe today:

- Package A for 8 evening concerts at the 560 Music Center
- Package B Includes 6 matinee concerts at First Presbyterian Church of Kirkwood
- Packages A and B: Save and purchase all 14 concerts!

For the best chance to secure your seating preference, we encourage you to renew before May 30.

With gratitude and anticipation,
Chamber Music Society of St. Louis